Despite their execution, an underground community of Christians survived until missionaries returned 250 years later. Christianity eventually began to prosper in Japan. February 18: Martin Luther, renewer of the church. We hold him in our remembrance as a Biblical scholar, translator of the Bible, public confessor of the faith, reformer of the liturgy, theologian, and education, whose baptism sustained him through his trials. February 25: Elizabeth Fedde, who was born in Norway and trained there as a deaconess. She ministered to the poor and to seafarers and established the Deaconess House and Hospital of the Lutheran Free Church in Minneapolis, Minnesota.				1          9am Adonai—Chapel          11am Holy Yoga          —Reception Room Pastor Chris Out

This month, the ELCA commemorates (among others):            March 10: Sojourner Truth, born a slave in New York, who became a preacher and set out on a journey to spread the Gospel.            March 17: Patrick, bishop in Ireland, who made many successful missionary journeys and called Christians to return to their baptism.            March 31: John Donne, a British priest well-known for both secular and sacred poetry. His most famous works include "Death Be Not Proud" and "Ask not for whom the bell tolls."
